BLOSSOM

When a loving relationship blossoms you can feel it in your heart. After a nerve-tingling beginning the excitement has built until you both realize this is “it”. The next move is to get married. And there’s no finer way than to choose a Blossom Dream Wedding by Breezes. That’s when - just as flowers blossom for their glorious moment in the sun - so do you! And miraculously - the entire occasion is at no cost to you. Think of a soft pink and white draped ceremony. Think of a blushing bridal bouquet! Imagine the dazzling pink satin table settings with beautiful glass rock accents at your reception. Then remember: the blossoming is all yours.

The Endless Love wedding package is complimentary. The Timeless Love and Eternal Love upgraded wedding packages are available for an additional charge. Upgrades and extras can be purchased to customize any wedding package.
